ALL ABOARD FOR TITLED LADY IS 'FOURTH' TRIP TO MAUI

The Fourth of July comes so late in the week this year that it is probable there will be a three-day holiday so that business men and their clerks may have a genuine outing.

The arrangements made for running the steamers of the Inter-Island Company to Maui are capital for this purpose as the Manna Kea will leave at 10 o'clock Thursday night for Kahului and get back with the passengers for the races Saturday morning, and the Claudine will bring back the passengers who include Haleakala and Iao Valley in their trip, early Sunday morning so there will be no time lost from business if the three-day holiday rule prevails.

Prices have been made for the trips so that the average wage earner can take it without inconveniencing him. There is going to be a lot of pleasure in this excursion and those who can afford the time should get in with the crowd. Tickets are being sold at the office of the Inter-Island Company on Queen street.

SECOND JERRY SIMPSON

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—Lady Constance Stewart Richardson arrived today on the Olympic. She has come over to show the American women how to dress as well as dance. She wore a somewhat startling gown, and to reporters she said:

"I wear this gown all the time. I designed it myself and the Japanese silk from which it was made cost but nine cents a yard. Its style is combination of a Japanese kimono, made longer of course, and the costume worn by women of other Oriental lands. All women should wear such costumes; they are infinitely more comfortable and in better taste than the styles of the present season."

The gown was a somber affair of brown. Its only suggestion of trimming being a bit of white at the wrists and neck. The slashes revealed the fact that she wears no stockings even when off the stage. Her feet were encased in sandals of brown ooze.

Asked if she had accepted a two weeks' engagement at Hammerstein's because of a wish to aid the English charities in which she was interested, she replied:

"Not wholly. Neither my husband nor myself has a large income. I am not especially fond of the stage, but I saw an opportunity to make a great deal of money and I accepted."

LILLIAN NORDICA HERE FOR MUSICAL RECITALS

Lillian Nordica, prima donna; Paul Dufault, the noted French tenor; Franklin Holding, violinist; and Romayne Simmons, accompanist, arrived in Honolulu by the Sierra this morning, and will appear in two splendid concert programs at the opera house, Thursday and Saturday nights.

BABY IMPALED ON PICKET.

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—Margaret Repicky, 15 months old, was left alone in the third story front room of her home, No. 3 Suydam place, Yonkers, mounting a chair at an open window, she leaned out and fell upon the slanting roof of the porch nine feet above the ground, then rolled off and was impaled upon the spikes of an iron picket fence. She was killed instantly.

The mother was seated on the front porch, chatting with a neighbor, when both were horrified at the sight of the falling baby. Mrs. Repicky was unaware that it was her child when she ran to the fence with her friend to lift it from the picket.

25 CENT "DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF—GROWS HAIR

Don't Pay 50 Cents for Worthless Hair Tonics — Use Old, Reliable, Harmless "Danderine" — Get Results

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's—advertisement.

Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application you will say it was the best investment you ever made. Your hair will immediately take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

BIG MUSICAL ACT WILL OPEN AT THE BIJOU THEATER TONIGHT

Diamond and Beaurice, new musical act, opening at Bijou tonight.

Heralded by mainland critics as one of the cleverest musical triumphs ever presented in vaudeville in which the tuneful harp is employed in a musical act, Diamond and Beaurice, a company of musicians will afford Honolulu a decided treat with the opening of their engagement at the Bijou theater this evening.

The act is far and away in the lead of similar organizations now touring the states or the continent. In every line of entertainment there is always an original and a host of imitators. Those who attend the series of concerts given by the Diamonds, beginning with this evening, will have no doubts as to their being the original Diamond and Beaurice, famous in vaudeville as the famous harpists, for their work has a finished excellence that speaks for itself.

NO SECRET ABOUT WOMAN'S BEAUTY

The flashing eye, the elastic step and the brilliant complexion are never companions of organic troubles; but it is the distressed expression, aches and pains, faintness, dizziness, that bearing down feeling, and the blues that are the tell-tale symptoms. If such women would only remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes such distressing symptoms, womanly beauty would be no longer a secret.—advertisement.

POPULAR THEATRE MAKES CHANGE

There is a change of things at the Popular theatre tonight. "Some of the highest class vaudeville that this city has ever seen will be brought to the front at this classy little playhouse, and in addition to a number of reels of motion pictures that will be shown, there is not going to be a better show on the boards in this city."

Take a look over the program in another part of the paper and then take in the Popular for a good evening's entertainment.

Owen Williams, the local agent for Wells-Fargo Express, was a returning passenger from the coast on the Sierra this morning.

WILLIAMS ACCEPTS.

J. N. S. Williams, appointed by the governor to membership on the public utilities commission and Hawaii's Panama-Pacific Exposition commission, formally accepted and signed both commissions on June 3, before the United States ambassador at London, England.

The documents, bearing his signature, the date and seal of the American consul at London, arrived on this morning's mail from the mainland. No word from Mr. Williams accompanied the papers, so it is not yet known how such he expects to return from his European tour.

A railway employee of Harrisonville, Mo., was found murdered by an ax in his home. His 7-year-old daughter was seriously injured.

SHEEP VERSUS MEN IS HIS TOPIC

What was undoubtedly one of the finest addresses ever delivered to the men of Honolulu that was given by David Carey Peters, pastor of the local Christian church, in the Empire theatre last night, the occasion being the second of the series of Sunday night mass meetings for men now being conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Peters spoke upon the subject: "Is a Man Worth More Than a Sheep?"

Mr. Peters began his address by showing the estimation which is placed upon a sheep in the sheep-raising states of America. He has been a frontier preacher, and has been in the mines, on the sheep and cattle ranges, and is familiar with all phases of western life. His illustrations last evening were all drawn from this life, and he gave the 412 men who attended an interesting hour of stories and facts.

The trend of the speaker's illustrations and stories was to show how little valuation is placed upon human life by many of the western industrial corporations, and how high an estimate is placed on cattle and sheep. He showed the ways in which man is worth more than a sheep, based on the facts of his spiritual nature. The address had all the charms which Ralph Connor's western stories have, and Honolulu did not know until last evening that it had a man of this calibre in its midst.

The program was opened with a number of selections by Milner's orchestra followed by ensemble singing, singing by the association quartet, and a solo by Mrs. G. K. Tacka-hury.

There's nothing so amusing as the chap who assumes things that do not concern him.
